Cruising on your very own Rich River Houseboat down river from Echuca to Torrumbarry Weir through state forests you will find the Murray River flanked by beautiful grassy banks and willow trees.

Or cruise upstream through the historic Echuca port to Barmah, with steeped banks and magnificent redgums.

Echuca was once the largest inland port in Australia. Today the wharves and river banks still echo the sounds of historic trade and paddlesteamers.

Echuca-Moama are regularly bathed in sunshine and each season portrays the mystical characteristics to this awesome river which keeps people coming back again and again.

Our moorings are "in the heart of Echuca" and are convenient to restaurants, shopping etc.

Supplies including groceries, ice and petrol can be obtained from caravan parks along the river.

You only need a car driver's license and be over 18 years old to operate a Rich River Houseboat. With your operating instructions you are away on your own river adventure.

All Rich River Houseboats come with all safety equipment meeting the NSW Maritime Service Board regulations.

There are any number of places you can stop along the river. Just pick somewhere safe and make a note of the closest river marker.
